

MI LSAG Approved Mission Statement

4/20/2010

The state public health laboratory system is an alliance of laboratories and other partners within a state that supports the ten essential public health services under the aegis of the state public health laboratory. The mission of system members is to operate in an interconnected and interdependent way to facilitate the exchange of information, optimize laboratory services and help control and prevent disease and public health threats in Michigan.